At least 41 migrants drowned in the Mediterranean after their ship capsized

Tripoli, February 25 (RHC)-- At least 41 migrants drowned in the Mediterranean after their ship capsized en route from Libya to European shores.

According to reports from North Africa, the boat had at least 120 people on board.

An estimated 17,000 people have died while attempting the treacherous journey since 2014, described by the United Nations as the most dangerous migration route in the world.
