

Pope Francis plans Iraq trip despite concerns about COVID

Pope goes ahead with planned visit to Iraq?

Vatican City, March 4 (RHC)-- Pope Francis is planning to travel to Baghdad Friday and is scheduled to meet with Grand Ayatollah Ali al-Sistani Saturday.

Some view the visit as ill-advised -- in addition to ongoing violence, a surge in coronavirus cases has prompted lockdowns in Iraq. The Vatican's ambassador to Iraq recently tested positive for COVID-19.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/249572-pope-francis-plans-iraq-trip-despite-concerns-about-covid>

Radio Habana Cuba