

Former U.S. Counter-terrorism Czar Richard Clarke Says Bush Committed War Crimes

Washington, June 5 (RHC)-- In the United States, the country's former top counter-terrorism official has said he believes President George W. Bush is guilty of war crimes for launching the 2003 invasion of Iraq.

Richard Clarke served as national coordinator for security and counter-terrorism during Bush's first year in office. He resigned in 2003 following the Iraq invasion and later made headlines by accusing Bush officials of ignoring pre-9/11 warnings about an imminent attack by al-Qaeda.
