

Cuba conveys condolences to Mexico on subway disaster

Havana, April 4 (RHC)—Cuba sent condolences to the people and government of Mexico for the loss of lives in an accident.

A Mexico City metro train overpass collapsed onto a road on Monday night, killing at least 23 people, including children, authorities said. Nearly 70 more were reportedly injured.

Our deepest condolences to the Mexican people and government for the loss of human life and injuries in the Mexico City subway. These are extended to relatives and close friends of the victims., wrote on Twitter the island's Foreign Minister, Bruno Rodríguez Parrilla.

Speaking at a news conference alongside the mayor, President Andrés Manuel López Obrador offered his condolences to the relatives of the victims and said that "nothing would be hidden" from the Mexican people.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/256183-cuba-conveys-condolences-to-mexico-on-subway-disaster>

Radio Habana Cuba