Israel Re-Arrests Palestinians Freed in 2011 Prisoner Swap

Tel Aviv, June 18 (RHC)-- Israel continues mass arrests in the Occupied Territories as part of a crackdown following the kidnapping of three teenagers in the West Bank.

Israel says it detained more than 65 Palestinians overnight, including 50 freed in the 2011 prisoner swap deal for a captured Israeli solider.

The teens were kidnapped last week while hitchhiking from a Jewish settlement. No one has yet claimed responsibility.
