Buenos Aires, July 11 (RHC)-- Argentina has become the country with the highest number of doses of vaccines against the coronavirus per 100 people in the last week.

According to the site Our World in Data of the University of Oxford: with 0.87 doses, Argentina ranks first in the number of daily doses applied and surpassed Italy (0.86 vaccines per 100 inhabitants), France (0.84), China (0.82) and Germany (0.76).

In the last two weeks, Argentina accelerated vaccinations against COVID-19, while waiting for the arrival of more doses of vaccine from Russia (Sputnik V) and China (Sinopharm).

According to the Argentinean Ministry of Health, a total of 24,311,481 people have been vaccinated, of which 19,332,044 have received the first dose and 4,979,437 the full immunization schedule.
