

President to address the nation Monday morning

Bandera cubana

Havana, July 12 (RHC) — Cuban President Miguel Diaz Canel and other authorities will appear on National Television and Radio network Monday at 9 am, local media reported.

Cuba woke up on the alert after the destabilizing events reported in various localities on Sunday, which generated the rejection by people from all walks of life island-wide.

Crowds took to the streets to voice their support to the Revolution, in response to the provocations staged in various towns, instigated through social media.

Artists, representatives of political and mass organizations, workers, and people in general responded with demonstrations in public spaces.

Radio Habana Cuba