

Protests demand resignation of Guatemalan president after firing top anti-corruption prosecutor

Image not found or type unknown

Protests demand resignation of Guatemalan president after firing top anti-corruption prosecutor

Guatemala City, July 26 (RHC)-- In Guatemala, protests calling for the resignation of right-wing President Alejandro Giammattei have intensified after the attorney general fired the country's top anti-corruption prosecutor Friday.

Juan Francisco Sandoval fled Guatemala just hours after being ousted, fearing for his life. Protesters are also condemning government corruption and the deadly mishandling of the pandemic.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/265082-protests-demand-resignation-of-guatemalan-president-after-firing-top-anti-corruption-prosecutor>

Radio Habana Cuba