

Grenade attack kills 12 people in Karachi

In Pakistan, at least 12 people — including four children — are dead after a grenade attack Saturday night in Karachi

Karachi, August 16 (RHC)-- In Pakistan, at least 12 people — including four children — are dead after a grenade attack Saturday night in Karachi. At least eight others were wounded.

According to local media reports, an entire family returning from a wedding reception was killed when their vehicle was hit with a grenade. No one has claimed responsibility for the attack.

Radio Habana Cuba