A U.S. federal judge in Washington, D.C., has blocked the Biden administration from enforcing Title 42

Washington, September 17 (RHC)-- A U.S. federal judge in Washington, D.C., has blocked the Biden administration from enforcing Title 42 — a Trump-era policy that allows immigration authorities to expel asylum seekers at the U.S.-Mexico border without due process, citing the pandemic as justification.

The court's order takes effect in 14 days. It's a landmark victory for the American Civil Liberties Union and several immigrant rights groups who condemned Title 42 as "cruel and lawless."
