

Cuba denies false information on regulations for health professionals' authorization to travel

Image not found or type unknown

MINSAP

Havana, October 1 (RHC)-- Based on false information that is circulating in social networks about the regulation of health professionals' authorization to travel abroad for private matters, the Cuban Ministry of Public Health clarifies that there are no new labor regulations for health workers.

The note signed by the Minsap clarifies that the regulations for traveling abroad remain as they were established in December 2015. (Source: Cubadebate).

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/272247-cuba-denies-false-information-on-regulations-for-health-professionals-authorization-to-travel>

Radio Habana Cuba