

Moncada military drill to be held in November

Image not found or type unknown

generico

Havana, October 8 (RHC) The Ministry of the Revolutionary Armed Forces announced that, following what was approved in Resolution 001 of the President of the National Defense Council for the year of Preparation for Defense 2021, and considering the improvement of the epidemiological situation in the country, the Moncada military drill will be held, as scheduled, for November 18 and 19.

The exercise, in which the chiefs, leaders, and command and management bodies will be involved, will culminate on November 20, with the National Defense Day, a press release from the Ministry of the Revolutionary Armed Forces said.

Radio Habana Cuba