

Tribute to National Poet of Suriname at Cuba's Fiesta de Fuego

Santiago de Cuba, July 2 (RHC) -- The siting of a sculpture in honor of the National Poet of Suriname, Robin Dobru Raveles, a close friend of Cuba, will be one of the main activities of the 34th edition of the Fiesta de Fuego, the Fire Fiesta, which will begin on July 3rd in Santiago de Cuba.

The work, by Erwin De Vries, a painter and a sculptor of that nation, will be unveiled on July 6th at the Ferreiro Park.

Orlando Verges, director of the Caribbean Center, the institution that organizes the meeting, pointed out that, as customary, different expressions of the region's traditional folklore will converge in the Festival.
