

Colombian President to Attend Match against Brazil

Bogota, July 3 (Xinhua-RHC) -- Colombian President Juan Manuel Santos is set to fly to the Brazilian city of Fortaleza on Friday to attend the Colombia vs Brazil quarterfinal at the 2014 World Cup.

In an interview with Colombia's Caracol Radio, the Colombian ambassador in Brazil, Patricia Cardenas, said Santos may meet with the governor of the host state, Ceara, but Brazilian President Dilma Rousseff's presence at the game was still unconfirmed.

The Brazil vs Colombia match will take place in Fortaleza on Friday, July 4th.
