"I felt good in the 1,000 meters, from the beginning I went out in front. I said to myself what is this, but I stayed strong, long, focused. At the end I let go a little bit, the air was in front and with waves, the boat was taking on water and I tried not to "kill myself" in case someone was being "funny" and I could answer him (laughs)," he said as soon as he got off the boat.

"The preparation was very good together with my teacher, who told me we are going to win and leave it in the history of the competition," said smiling the world youth champion of the C1-1000 in Pitesti 2019 and with several awards in senior world cups.
