

Cuban prime minister congratulates construction workers on their day

Havana, December 5 (RHC)-- Cuban Prime Minister Manuel Marrero Cruz on Sunday congratulated workers in the sector on the occasion of Construction Worker's Day.

The head of government recalled on his Twitter account that the date was proposed by the leader of the Revolution, Fidel Castro Ruz on the occasion of the Third Congress of Builders and in tribute to Armando Mestre, assailant on the Moncada barracks, expeditionary of the Granma and martyr of the construction sector.

Radio Habana Cuba