The Islazul Cienfuegos Branch of the Ministry of Tourism, through the strategy of the Hotel Group, reopened the Villa Yaguanabo, near the border with Sancti Spiritus and the mountains of the Guamuhaya Group, certified as the most Hygienic and Safe Tourism, against the COVID-19 pandemic.

Cienfuegos, December 11 (RHC)-- The Islazul Cienfuegos Branch of the Ministry of Tourism, through the strategy of the Hotel Group, reopened the Villa Yaguanabo, near the border with Sancti Spiritus and the mountains of the Guamuhaya Group, certified as the most Hygienic and Safe Tourism, against the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Pasacaballo Hotel, located in a very privileged place for its natural beauties, next to the Caribbean Sea, should begin to provide service as of December 15, which functioned as a Hotel-Hospital for COVID patients.

It underwent a process of repair and maintenance of its areas, the restaurants and the swimming pool for children.

Its 188 rooms are almost ready and new services are being added, according to Felicia Gómez Ojeda, Commercial Specialist of the Islazul Cienfuegos Branch.

"We have a new acquisition, she highlights, a children's playground. One of the things we are going to use in the reopening. We are working on two bars, which we are also going to reopen, one to support the swimming pool and the other outside the facility."
