

FBI undercover teams infiltrated Portland racial justice protests

The New York Times is reporting the FBI sent surveillance teams to infiltrate racial justice and anti-police brutality protests in Portland, Oregon, starting in July 2020.

New York, December 23 (RHC)-- The New York Times is reporting the FBI sent surveillance teams to infiltrate racial justice and anti-police brutality protests in Portland, Oregon, starting in July 2020.

The FBI agents, who were originally deployed to protect Portland's federal courthouse, quickly widened the scope of their mission.

Undercover agents reportedly participated in demonstrations, tailed vandalism suspects and secretly recorded video of activists.
