

Cruise liner carrying infected passengers docks in Italy

MCS Grandiosa

Rome, January 4 (RHC)-- In Italy, passengers have begun disembarking from the MCS Grandiosa liner carrying dozens people who tested positive for the coronavirus. State TV's RaiNews24 reported that passengers testing positive numbered 150, and that most of them of were Italian.

The Genoa daily newspaper Il Secolo XIX reported about 40 of those who tested positive got off the cruise ship in Genoa on Monday. Others would be disembarked in Civitavecchia, a port that serves Rome, or in Palermo, Sicily, it added.

Some 4,000 passengers in all aboard the ship, which reached Genoa after sailing from Marseille, France.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/281705-cruise-liner-carrying-infected-passengers-docks-in-italy>

Radio Habana Cuba