

Police in Idaho face death threats after arresting white supremacists

Police officers in the U.S. state of Idaho have reportedly received death threats after arresting 31 members of the white supremacist organization known as the Patriot Front, who are accused of plotting to start a riot at a gay pride event in the city of Coeur d'Alene.

Boise, June 15 (RHC)-- Police officers in the U.S. state of Idaho have reportedly received death threats after arresting 31 members of the white supremacist organization known as the Patriot Front, who are accused of plotting to start a riot at a gay pride event in the city of Coeur d'Alene.

The white supremacists were found packed in the back of a U-Haul truck armed with riot gear including a smoke grenade and shields. On Monday, the Patriot Front members were released on bail, which was set at $300 per person.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/290787-police-in-idaho-face-death-threats-after-arresting-white-supremacists>

Radio Habana Cuba