Camagüey, June 20 (JIT) - Thirty fights distributed in two programs will mark this Monday the beginning of the Playa Girón National Boxing Tournament that will have actions in Camaguey.

The bouts will begin at 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. at the Rafael Fortun Sports Palace, where the home team will seek to retain the reign exercised in the previous version, disputed in 2019.

The technical meeting set the number of registered participants at 114, headed by two-time Olympic champions Roniel Iglesias (PRI-69 kg), Arlen López (GTM-81 kg) and Julio César La Cruz (CMG-91).

The list of hierarchs also includes triple world champion Lazaro Alvarez (PRI-57) and the holder at that level Yoennis Feliciano (CMG-75), but not Tokyo 2020 gold medalist Andy Cruz (MTZ-63).

"He was absent from the last days of training and traveled to the competition venue," commissioner Alberto Puig de la Barca said in this regard.

Three years ago Camagüey forged its leadership with 59 units and had Sancti Spíritus (45) and Guantánamo (32) as companions on the awards podium.
