

Cuba-China Ballet Friendship Gala on Tuesday and Wednesday in Havana

A ballet gala dedicated to the long friendly ties between Cuba and China is set to be held at Havana's National Theater with the performance of Cuban and Chinese National Ballet Dancers on Tuesday and Wednesday.

On the occasion of Chinese President, Xi Jing Ping's visit to the island, the program includes a fragment of the famous 19th century classic Giselle, various pas de deux, such as Don Quixote, Esmeralda, Le Corsaire, Danzantes and Sacrifice. Cuban prima ballerina Viengsay Valdés is scheduled to dance the Don Quixote pas de deux with Chinese partner Mao Xiadon, while Cuban principal Dani Hernández will dance the Giselle excerpt with China's Zhang Jian.

The program includes Chinese artists Wang Ye and Su Ruichen dancing a Ben Stevenson version of the Esmeralda pas de deux, while Qiu Yunting and Zhang Yao will perform the dramatic contemporary piece Sacrifice by Chinese choreographer Fei Bo.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/cultura/29139-cuba-china-ballet-friendship-gala-on-tuesday-and-wednesday-in-havana>

Radio Habana Cuba