

Cuban Foreign Ministry congratulates Cape Verde on its National Holiday

Havana, July 6 (RHC)-- On Tuesday, the Cuban Foreign Ministry congratulated the people and government of the Republic of Cape Verde on the occasion of its National Day.

In a message on its official Twitter account, the Foreign Ministry of Cuba ratified the willingness to continue strengthening bilateral ties and cooperation.

Havana and Praia have maintained diplomatic relations for 47 years. In 2020, Cuba sent collaborators of the international Henry Reeve contingent of specialized doctors to support the African nation in the fight against the COVID-19 pandemic.

Cape Verde is an insular sovereign state located in the Atlantic Ocean, with a population of more than 483 thousand inhabitants in an area of 4 thousand square kilometers.
