

Foreign Minister Bruno Rodriguez votes from New York in the referendum on the Code of Families

Foreign Minister Bruno Rodriguez Parilla exercised his vote from New York

New York, Sep 19 (Minrex) On Sunday morning, Foreign Minister Bruno Rodriguez Parilla, exercised his vote in the referendum on the Code of Families from the 64th constituency, based at the Cuban Mission to the UN.

The Cuban Foreign Minister, who is in New York to participate in the high-level segment of the general debate of the 77th session of the United Nations General Assembly, cast his vote from abroad as was done during the day by diplomatic personnel, our collaborators and all those who are outside the national territory for official reasons.

For this overseas voting process, 123 electoral districts were established and 1008 polling stations were set up in more than 120 countries. From them, Cuban voters carry out this democratic exercise on a draft law that is the result of a process of genuine popular participation.
