

Trump openly embraces far-right QAnon conspiracy theory

Former U.S. President Donald Trump is openly embracing the far-right, antisemitic QAnon movement. Adherents of the conspiracy theory believe Trump is secretly at war with a deep state cabal of elite Satan-worshipping Democrats who run a child sex trafficking operation.

Palm Springs, September 24 (RHC)-- Former U.S. President Donald Trump is openly embracing the far-right, antisemitic QAnon movement. Adherents of the conspiracy theory believe Trump is secretly at war with a deep state cabal of elite Satan-worshipping Democrats who run a child sex trafficking operation.

Last week, Trump shared a post on his “Truth Social” platform of him wearing a “Q” on his lapel and featuring two QAnon slogans. And Trump recently led a rally for Republican Senate candidate J.D. Vance in Ohio, where he set part of his speech to music that was almost identical to a theme song adopted by QAnon.

Hundreds of Trump supporters responded with a one-fingered salute — a gesture that’s drawn comparisons to the infamous salute used in Nazi Germany.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/300195-trump-openly-embraces-far-right-qanon-conspiracy-theory>

Radio Habana Cuba