Havana, September 26 (RHC)-- Cuban actress Aurora Basnuevo Hernandez died Monday in Havana at the age of 84.

Aurora was an actress, singer and presenter. Her character of Estelvina, in the program Alegrías de sobremesa of Radio Progreso, made her well known among the public.

On television, she appeared in dramatized programs dedicated to theater, stories and comedies. She also worked in musical programs, doubling as humorist, singer and presenter.

She was recognized with the National Humorism Award, the National Radio Award and, recently, the 100th Anniversary Radio Award.

Our heartfelt condolences go out to her family and friends.
