

Havana International Fair scheduled for November

Image not found or type unknown

Havana International Fair scheduled for November

Havana, October 15 (RHC)-- Cuba's Minister of Foreign Trade and Investment, Rodrigo Malmierca Diaz, announced Saturday that the Havana International Fair (FIHAV) will be held from November 14 to 18.

On his official Twitter account, the Cuban official said that the 38th edition of the event will be held at the Expocuba fairgrounds in the Cuban capital, where dozens of countries will participate and exhibit their products and services.

He added that the new Portfolio of Opportunities with foreign capital will be presented at the V Investment Forum, which will take place within the scope of the fair, suspended in the last two years due to COVID-19.

"Havana International Fair, in its 38th edition, from November 14 to 18 at @ExpoCuba. Companies from dozens of countries, including #Cuba, will exhibit their products and services. In V Investment Forum we will launch new Portfolio of Opportunities with foreign capital. @MINCEX_CUBA".

FIHAV has established itself as the most important commercial exchange of the country and the Caribbean, in which institutions promoting trade and investment have found the right space to promote their products and services and identified partners for the formation of strategic alliances of international character.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/302006-havana-international-fair-scheduled-for-november>

Radio Habana Cuba