

Cuba gets ready for new edition of Havana International Fair

Cuban Prime Minister Manuel Marrero reviewed Saturday the preparations for the 38th edition of the Havana International Fair, Fihav 2022.

Havana, October 23 (RHC)-- Cuban Prime Minister Manuel Marrero reviewed Saturday the preparations for the 38th edition of the Havana International Fair, Fihav 2022.

The event is the most important general commercial exchange in Cuba and the Caribbean, and one of the most representative in Latin America. Between November 14 and 18, the Expocuba fairgrounds will host exhibitors, businessmen and technicians from all sectors of the Cuban economy, as well as a broad international trade show.

Fihav has been held since 1983 and is a business platform for new and established companies.

Despite the economic, commercial and financial blockade of the U.S. government against Cuba, intensified in times of pandemic, the largest of the Antilles has the confidence of businessmen from all over the world in the Cuban market.
