

International Boxing Association president to make working visit to Cuba

Photo: IBA

Havana, November 28 (RHC)-- The president of the International Boxing Association (IBA), Umar Kremlev, will arrive in Cuba in the early hours of Tuesday for a working visit.

The program includes a tour of the Holveín Quesada National Boxing School, forge of Olympic and world champions, where he will meet with athletes, coaches and other members of his technical staff.

During his brief stay, the executive will also talk with the head of the Cuban Boxing Federation, Alberto Puig de la Barca, and will hold exchanges with sports authorities on the island.

Radio Habana Cuba