X Alfonso will be the guest artist at the opening gala of the 43rd edition of the International Festival of New Latin American Cinema.

Havana, November 29 (RHC)-- Cuban singer-songwriter, arranger and producer X Alfonso will be the guest artist at the opening gala of the 43rd edition of the International Festival of New Latin American Cinema, its organizers confirmed.

The opening of the event will take place on Thursday, December 1st, at 7:00 p.m. local time, at the Charles Chaplin cinema and the film chosen for the first screening is "Argentina, 1985."

Recently, X Alfonso, together with his sister Eme, his parents Gerardo Alfonso and Ele Valdés and the group Síntesis, won the Latin Grammy in the category of Best Folk Album for the album Ancestros Sinfónico.

The 43rd edition of the International Festival of New Latin American Cinema will be held from December 1 to 11 in several theaters in the Cuban capital that have the technology required to screen the films.
