Washington, December 1 (RHC)-- Donald Trump is facing growing condemnation for hosting white supremacist Nick Fuentes at his Mar-a-Lago resort in Florida last week. Fuentes, who is a Holocaust denier, dined with the president along with the rapper Kanye West, who was suspended from Twitter last month for making anti-Semitic comments.

Donald Trump's former Vice President Mike Pence said: "President Trump was wrong to give a white nationalist, an anti-Semite and a Holocaust denier a seat at the table. I think he should apologize for it, and he should denounce those individuals and their hateful rhetoric without qualification."

At the White House, Press Secretary Karine Jean-Pierre also condemned Trump's actions, saying: "This administration, this president totally rejects bigotry, racism, antisemitism. And there is just no place for these types of vile forces in our society."
