

President of Cuba meets with his Bolivian counterpart Luis Arce

Photo: @PresidenciaCuba.

Havana, December 13 (RHC)-- Cuban President Miguel Díaz-Canel held a meeting on Tuesday in Havana with his Bolivian counterpart Luis Arce, who arrived in our country to attend the 22nd Summit of ALBA-TCP heads of state and government.

The Bolivian president said in his account on the social network Twitter that during the exchange with Díaz-Canel was coordinated the implementation of joint actions for bilateral development.

"United, as two brotherly peoples, we will continue firmly on the path of the democratic, cultural and progressive revolution", said Arce in the social network.

In another message he stressed that the XXII Summit of the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America-People's Trade Treaty -ALBA-TCP-, to be held tomorrow, will be a propitious space to continue deepening the unity of the peoples of Latin America and the Caribbean.

According to the Presidency of the Republic, the dialogue between the heads of state took place during a recess of Tuesday's session of the National Assembly of People's Power. Founded on December 14, 2004, ALBA-TCP is an integration mechanism that emphasizes solidarity, justice and cooperation.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/307884-president-of-cuba-meets-with-his-bolivian-counterpart-luis-arce>

Radio Habana Cuba