Havana, December 24 (RHC)-- Uruguayan striker Luis Suarez will sign for two years with Gremio de Porto Alegre, thus extending his brilliant soccer career.

Suarez, 35, represented his country for the fourth time in the World Cup in Qatar, where he scored once.

El Pistolero, as he is known, played before the World Cup for the National team, with which he was crowned champion.

Suárez played 16 seasons in European soccer, where he played for clubs such as Liverpool, Barcelona and Atlético de Madrid.

Gremio de Porto Alegre is one of Brazil's historic clubs and has won three Libertadores Cups.

During the last season it managed to climb to the first division, from which it has no intention of leaving.
