France celebrates the anniversary of the Cuban Revolution

Paris, Feb 2 (RHC) The Cuban embassy in France will host today a ceremony to commemorate the 64th anniversary of the Revolution, the guests include members of the solidarity movement.

Elected officials, civil servants, political personalities, active and retired, union leaders, Cuban residents, artists, and foreign diplomats, among others, will be attending the event in this capital city.

The main associations from France that support the island in the defense of its sovereignty and the condemnation of the economic, commercial, and financial blockade imposed by the United States have also confirmed their attendance.

Ambassadors Otto Vaillant (bilateral) and Yahima Esquivel (UNESCO) will host the meeting, in which their messages of good wishes for the year that began and their gratitude for the support to the Antillean nation are expected. (Source: PL)
