

Cuban President Miguel Diaz-Canel concludes official visit to Belize

Belmopan, Feb 13 (RHC) Cuban President Miguel Diaz-Canel concluded his official visit to Belize with a meeting with healthcare collaborators who are working in this Central American nation.

On his Twitter account, the head of State described the meeting as excellent. “They know the reality of the country in-depth and their commitment to the Belizean population is as high as to our Homeland,” he stressed.

They teach and receive lessons every day, I felt proud while listening to them, Díaz-Canel said about the 117 doctors and nurses who are members of the Cuban medical mission here. (Prensa Latina)
