

United Socialist Party of Venezuela affirms that Chávez's legacy continues to materialize

Photo: teleSUR

Caracas, March 5 (RHC)-- The United Socialist Party of Venezuela -PSUV-, assured that the "miracle" initiated by Commander Hugo Chávez in 1999 continues to materialize, 10 years after his physical departure.

The largest political force in the country indicated in a message, on this date, that the dreams and legacy of the Bolivarian leader continue with "dignity for the Venezuelan family" through the administration of President Nicolás Maduro.

He highlighted that the Head of State is tirelessly betting on the consolidation of Chávez's projects and dreams, adjusted to the new times, needs and challenges.

The PSUV mentioned, in this sense, the 3R.NETS (resistance, rebirth and revolution) of the New Epoch, which are part of the Government policies for the popular resistance, with the strengthening of the political, social and cultural conscience.

He also cited the seven strategic lines for the year 2023 announced by Maduro at the end of 2022 and which are aimed at consolidating economic growth with equality; expanding social protection; expanding the presence of the Popular Power; and consolidating the integral security of the nation and guaranteeing justice.

Also, to shore up and expand the 1X10 method of Good Governance and the Bricomiles (Military Community Brigades for Education and Health), to advance in the integral independence and decolonization of Venezuela, and to consolidate the Patria Grande (Great Homeland).

The so-called "tolda roja" pointed out that we have a President made people, who governs the homeland "in perfect unity with everyone", because in the end we are all brothers and sisters of the same land and beautiful dreams to be fulfilled.

He assured that "we will make it", nobody doubts it, because with the President who makes dreams and the hope of Nicolás Maduro, the people will continue to overcome and build the beautiful homeland for peace, happiness, prosperity and union.

The text quoted words of the President in which he affirmed that "beloved Commander Chávez" must be remembered with joy, patriotic fervor and revolutionary commitment, as a present and future challenge.

Also the First Vice-President of the PSUV, Diosdado Cabello, pointed out that more than frenzied love, "our people and a great leader were united in reciprocated love", and that love remains intact, his memory and work are present in every corner of the Homeland and present in the heart of the humble people, he indicated.

With a vigil at the Cuartel de la Montaña, fireworks and cannon shots throughout the country, Venezuelans received this Sunday the tenth anniversary of Chavez' physical departure.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/315704-united-socialist-party-of-venezuela-affirms-that-chavez-legacy-continues-to-materialize>

Radio Habana Cuba