Havana, March 22 (RHC) -- The triumph over Argentinean Sebastian Castillo, placed Damian Arce among the members of Domadores de Cuba who successfully debuted in professional boxing.

At the emblematic Luna Park, in Buenos Aires, the Antillean celebrated by unanimous vote in the 118-pound bout, described as "a clear victory" by ESPN.

The judges' scorecards were 59-53, 60-52 and 60-52 after six rounds in which Arce kept the pace against the host, who had a record of seven smiles, one setback and one draw.

It was the 21st win in 22 fights for his franchise, which debuted in professional boxing in May last year.
