

28th Ibero-American Summit underway

Image not found or type unknown

28th Ibero-American Summit

Havana, March 25 (RHC) The 28th Ibero-American Summit of Heads of State and Government began in Santo Domingo with the presence of the leaders of Latin America and the Caribbean, Spain, Portugal and Andorra, under the motto "Together for a fair Ibero-America and sustainable".

The Ibero-American Secretary General, Andrés Allamand, alluded to the importance of a Summit focused

Allamand pointed out that this will be a summit dedicated to people and aimed at having concrete results.

Also, Dominican President Luis Abinader stressed the unity existing between the countries of the Ibero-Am

After the initial activity of the Summit, the leaders participated in a dinner offered by the head of state of the

Today, starting at 09:00 local time, the event will take place at the Convention Center of the Dominican Mi

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/317728-28th-ibero-american-summit-underway>

Radio Habana Cuba