

Sectarian Attacks Kill Scores in Iraq

Baghdad, August 26 (RHC)-- A car bomb has killed at least 10 people today in the Iraqi capital Baghdad. Across Iraq on Monday, at least four dozen people were killed in a series of bombings targeting mainly Shiite areas.

In Baghdad, 11 people were killed by a suicide attack inside a mosque. The Islamic State has claimed responsibility for that attack, calling it revenge for a mass shooting that killed 73 people at a Sunni mosque east of the capital on Friday.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/31879-sectarian-attacks-kill-scores-in-iraq>

Radio Habana Cuba