Havana, May 9 (RHC)-- Cuba's Council of State has called for an extraordinary session of the National Assembly of People's Power (ANPP) for May 25, whose agenda includes an update on the country's economic situation.

A note published on Tuesday in the Granma newspaper indicates that at that meeting, starting at 09:00 local time, the Social Communication Bill and the Proposal of the Legislative Schedule of the 10th Legislature will also be discussed.

Other topics of this second extraordinary session are the Constitution of the permanent working commissions and the ANPP's Parliamentary Friendship Groups.

The source adds that the meeting will take place at the Palacio de las Convenciones in Havana.
