Cuba publishes latest version of Social Communication bill

Havana, May 9 (RHC) – Cuba’s National Assembly of People’s Power (parliament) published on Tuesday the latest version of the Social Communication bill to promote popular participation and contribute to the legal culture of citizens.

As reported by parliament on its website, the Council of Ministers exercised the legislative initiative so the deputies discuss the rule during the second extraordinary session of the legislative body, in its 10th Legislature, on May 25.

The current version of the bill is more solid, mature and comprehensive than the one delivered to the National Assembly last December. Cubans will be able to issue their criteria on the normative provision through the email comunicacion@anpp.gob.cu. (Source: Prensa Latina)
