

Israel continues air attacks on Gaza, killing at least 16 people in two days

Image not found or type unknown

Palestinian media outlets reported that Israeli warplanes pounded areas in Abasan al-Kabira and al-Qarara town, located in the Khan Yunis province in the southern Gaza Strip, before

Wednesday noon, as well as targets east of the border town of Rafah.

Gaza City, May 10 (RHC)-- In the occupied West Bank, Israeli soldiers shot dead two Palestinians during a raid in the town of Qabatiya.

Meanwhile, Israeli airstrikes in the Gaza Strip continued for a second day, with at least one Palestinian killed today, after the air raids killed at least 15 Palestinians and wounded 22 others Tuesday, according to officials.

Palestinian media outlets reported that Israeli warplanes pounded areas in Abasan al-Kabira and al-Qarara town, located in the Khan Yunis province in the southern Gaza Strip, before Wednesday noon, as well as targets east of the border town of Rafah.

The Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) said in a statement that the “heinous crime” committed by the occupying Tel Aviv regime against the Gaza Strip, describing it as a blatant violation of international law and humanitarian principles.

It held Israel “fully responsible for the repercussions of such crimes, acts of aggression and organized terrorism,” emphasizing that they “threaten to undermine security and stability in the region.”

The organization called on the international community “to shoulder its responsibilities, provide international protection to Palestinian people, and hold Israel to account for all its crimes and violations against Palestinians as well as their land and holy sites.”

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/322255-israel-continues-air-attacks-on-gaza-killing-at-least-16-people-in-two-days>

Radio Habana Cuba