Havana, May 16 (RHC)-- The National Institute of Sports, Physical Education and Recreation (INDER) and the Russian Embassy in Cuba are calling for the Cuba-Russia Friendship Race 2023, which every year pays tribute to the victory over fascism.

On this occasion it will be held on May 27 starting at 9:00 a.m., with departure from the embassy of that Eurasian country in this capital.

The National Commission of Races and Walks of INDER informs that registration will take place on May 27 between 7:00 a.m. and 8:45 a.m.

According to the announcement, the start and finish line will be located in front of the embassy building, located on Quinta Avenida between 62 and 66 in Miramar, Playa.

The route will be along Quinta, 66 to third, 30 to first, 60 to third and 66 to the finish line.

All categories of the popular races are called and prizes will be awarded to the first three places plus the winners of the associations of people with disabilities: Anci, Aclifim and Ansoc.
