Havana, May 27 (RHC)-- Cuban President Miguel Díaz-Canel toured economic targets this Saturday in Santa Clara, a municipality in the center of the country that elected him to the 10th Legislature of the National Assembly of People's Power (Parliament).

The president, accompanied by the rest of the legislators of this territory, visited the meat processing plant belonging to the Granja Agropecuaria 5 de Marzo, of the Ministry of Interior (Minint), and the company Geominera del Centro, reports the Presidency Cuba in its Twitter account.

In the entity of the Minint Villa Clara Agroindustrial Enterprise, its director, Yosbany Hernández Pérez, explained to the deputies how the industrial area dedicated to the production of sausages, dough and minced meat based on pork, beef and fish works, reports local newspaper Vanguardia.

The company operates a feed factory, a swine center, and is promoting the fattening of bulls and sheep, the newspaper added in its digital version.

Likewise, the parliamentary delegation, headed by the President of the Republic, talked with the staff of the Geominera del Centro company, subordinated to the Geominsal business group, one of the entities with the best economic results in the province and in the attention to its workers.

The eight deputies from Santa Clara, among which is also the First Secretary of the Central Committee of the Party, resume their monthly visits to inform about the legislative agreements and to continue channeling the voters' concerns.

The tour takes place just 48 hours after the end of the second extraordinary session of the 10th Legislature of the Cuban Parliament, and on the eve of the election of provincial governors and deputy governors, this Sunday, May 28. (Source:PL)
