

ALBA Cultural celebrates Africa Day today

Havana, May 27 (RHC)-- The Casa of the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America, ALBA Cultural, in this capital, in coordination with the Embassy of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela in Cuba, will hold a political and cultural event on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of Africa Day.

The origin of this celebration dates back to May 25, 1963, when 32 leaders of African states met in Addis Ababa to form the Organization of African Unity (OAU), today the African Union (AU).

ALBA Cultural foresees for tomorrow, Saturday, the Poetry Festival and a concert with Vionayka Martinez, dedicated to the International Poetry Festival and with the collaboration of the Popular Music Center.

A space for Concert Music, entitled Our America, will be organized this Sunday, May 28, with the guest presence of the Sonantas Habaneras, by Jesús Ortega, and the Emsemble Lauda Henryry Vidal (Wind Quintet).

Next Tuesday, in its Main Hall, the attention will be focused on the colloquium "Children and Youth Choral Singing, achievements and challenges of the Community Choir in Ecuador and its contexts."
