

New York grand jury indicts ex-Marine who killed Black man in choke-hold on subway

Image not found or type unknown

??????In New York, a grand jury has indicted former U.S. Marine Daniel Penny over the killing of Jordan Neely on a city subway on May 1st.

New York, June 16 (RHC)-- In New York, a grand jury has indicted former U.S. Marine Daniel Penny over the killing of Jordan Neely on a city subway on May 1st.

Penny, who is white, held Jordan Neely, a Black man, in a chokehold until he died. Neely, a beloved street performer, was unhoused and hungry, and crying out for help when the ex-Marine attacked him.

The charges will be unsealed when Penny is arraigned; the date of his arraignment is expected to be announced later.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/325696-new-york-grand-jury-indicts-ex-marine-who-killed-black-man-in-choke-hold-on-subway>

Radio Habana Cuba