Camagüey, June 16 (RHC)-- Cuban President Miguel Díaz-Canel Bermúdez is chairing a working meeting in this city today to evaluate the damages caused by the floods of the last few days and the recovery actions being undertaken in the territory.

In the meeting, which takes place at the headquarters of the PCC Provincial Committee, directors of the most affected sectors after the heavy rains offer information on how the recovery tasks are progressing in the areas most affected by the rains, such as housing, agriculture, roads, telecommunications, education, and the electricity sector.

Roberto Morales Ojeda, member of the Political Bureau and Secretary of Organization of the Central Committee of the PCC, accompanied the Cuban leader.

Federico Hernández Hernández, member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba and first secretary of the political organization in the Agramontino territory, and Jorge Enrique Sutil Sarabia, Governor of Camagüey, also participate.

Hernández Hernández informed about the main measures to attend the affected people.

In the meeting, emphasis is placed on speeding up recovery tasks, offering adequate attention to those affected by the hydrometeorological event, and involving the population in these actions, all of this to return to normality as soon as possible and achieve vitality of services. (Source:ACN)
