

Manolito Simonet y su Trabuco to tour the U.S.

The popular orchestra of Manolito Simonet y su Trabuco is performing on several stages in the United States on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of its founding.

Washington, July 4 (RHC)-- The popular orchestra of Manolito Simonet y su Trabuco is performing on several stages in the United States on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of its founding.

Daniel Donayre, general producer of the band's current tour of different U.S. cities, expressed to Prensa Latina his happiness for the way they are received by the public in each presentation.

Regarding Manolito's presentation in New York, he emphasized that they will be playing in one of the most legendary venues, where stars have played and anticipated that it will be at full capacity.

On Friday the group will perform a concert in New York where Cuban music is loved and that "makes me think that a lot of people will come, he said.

In Miami, a lot of people crowded at the entrance door where he performed, "there were many Cubans who really love his music in spite of everything", he emphasized.

Manolito y su Trabuco will offer 12 concerts, three of which have already taken place.

They still have commitments in Los Angeles and San Francisco (California) and in Seattle (Washington); in addition to those planned in New York and Atlanta (Georgia).

La boda de Belén, Y Todavía No, Te Dejo Libre, Saliditas contigo, El Águila, Locos por mi Habana and Tú me dijiste mentiras are some of the group's greatest hits which, among others, are part of the repertoire of this tour.

Composer, arranger and pianist of self-taught formation, Manolito Simonet once said that he organized his Trabuco with all the musical heritage and praised him because his orchestra is, without a doubt, one of the most representative of Cuban popular music. (Source:PL)
