

Cuba congratulates Argentina on the anniversary of its independence

Havana, Jul 9 (RHC) The Cuban Ministry of Foreign Affairs congratulated this Sunday the people and Government of the Argentine Republic, on the occasion of the 207th anniversary of its independence.

"We reaffirm our willingness to continue strengthening the existing historical ties between both nations," the Foreign Ministry also pointed out on its Twitter profile.

On May 25, 1810, the last Spanish viceroy who ruled from Buenos Aires was deposed, organizing the First Government Junta, and on July 9, 1816, its independence was formally proclaimed in San Miguel de Tucumán, as a free and sovereign country.
