Havana, July 24 (RHC)-- After the presentation this Sunday in Cienfuegos, the musical group Arnaldo y su Talismán moves today its summer tour to other provinces of central Cuba.

According to the social networks of Arnaldo Rodriguez, lead singer of the band, the tour will continue this Monday in Ciego de Avila, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in Villa Clara and will end on Friday in Sancti Spiritus.

Throughout these days, the public will get closer to their production "Tierra Caribe" and the audiovisual of the same name that promotes it, fruit of the collaboration with the Ministry of Culture, produced by Empresa de Grabaciones y Ediciones Musicales (Egrem) and directed by Maysel Bello.

The tour, promoted by Producciones Mambo, Egrem and Musicuba, also has the support of the Culture Directorate of each province, which made possible the realization of this harmonic proposal, framed within the celebrations for the 20th anniversary of Talismán.

The repertoire that distinguishes them is a reflection of popular culture, while their lyrics and chords show their versatility, as the discography contains compilations of titles created for special occasions, soundtracks and significant commemorations in the Caribbean island.

At the same time, the format serves as a platform for cultural promotion, since through the community social initiative Lucecita takes to the neighborhoods the art of involving children and teenagers in the musical universe.

Other actions such as the creation of Mambo productions and the Piña Colada Festival, which every year brings together great exponents of the medium on squares and stages in the city of Ciego de Avila, in the center of the country, also stand out.(Source:PL)
